Notes: Capital Gains Taxation for Mutual Funds

Note 1 – Capital gains from transfer of units of “specified mutual fund schemes” acquired on or after 1st April 2023 are treated as short term capital gains taxable at applicable slab rates as provided above irrespective of the period of holding of such mutual fund units. For this purpose, from FY 2025–26, “specified mutual fund” means (a) Mutual fund which invests more than 65 per cent of its total proceeds in debt and money market instruments; or (b) a fund which invests 65 per cent or more of its total proceeds in units of a fund referred to in above sub-clause (a).

* Rate of 12.5% to be levied on long-term capital gains exceeding Rs. 1.25 lakh provided transfer of such units is subject to Securities Transaction Tax (‘STT’).

$ Plus applicable Surcharge and “Health and Education Cess” (as mentioned under Old and New Regime on page 1).

 For gains on transfer/redemption (without indexation benefit and foreign exchange fluctuation). For determining nature of gains (i.e. long term or short term) on mutual fund unit listed on recognized stock exchange in India, period of holding of 12 months is to be considered.

@ Surcharge at 7% on base tax is applicable where total income of domestic corporate unit holders exceeds Rs 1 crore but does not exceed 10 crores and at 12% where total income exceeds 10 crores. However, surcharge at flat rate of 10 percent to be levied on base tax for the companies opting for lower rate of tax of 22%/15%. Further, “Health and Education Cess” to be levied at the rate of 4% on aggregate of base tax and surcharge.

Short term/ long term capital gain tax (along with applicable Surcharge and Health and Education Cess) will be deducted at applicable rate at the time of redemption of units in case of NRI investors. Tax treaty benefit can be claimed for withholding tax on capital gains subject to fulfillment of stipulated conditions.

Transfer of units upon consolidation of mutual fund schemes or consolidation of plans within mutual fund schemes in accordance with SEBI (Mutual Funds) Regulations, 1996 is exempt from capital gains.

Relaxation to non-residents from deduction of tax at higher rate (except income distributed by mutual fund) in absence of PAN subject to providing specified information and documents.

Notes: Income-tax implications on income in respect of units of a Mutual Fund

* Tax is not deductible if income in respect of units of a mutual fund is below Rs. 10,000 in a financial year.

 Plus applicable Surcharge and “Health and Education Cess” (as mentioned under Old and New Regime on page 1).

 The income distributed by mutual fund to unitholders is unlikely to fall within definition of dividend under tax treaty. Given this and language of proviso to section 196A, claiming tax treaty benefit in respect of income distributed by mutual fund to unitholders for withholding tax purpose may not be possible.

* In the case of a resident person, if PAN has become inoperative due to PAN – Aadhaar not being linked, tax could be withheld at a higher rate of 20%.
